

Instrumental lessons available at Haberfield Public School

“Music education uniquely contributes to the emotional, physical, social and cognitive growth of all students.” National Review of School Music Education, Australia, 2005.

At Haberfield as well as class music students can learn a musical instrument from one of the visiting tutors. Unfortunately lessons are not funded by the Department of Education & there are fees. The fees are discounted compared to learning privately outside of school. If your child is interested in learning a musical instrument, please fill in form below & if possible return via email to haberfieldbands@gmail.com

I will send further information about instrumental lessons when I receive completed forms & pass your expression of interest onto the relevant musical tutor. The tutors will contact parent/caregivers to arrange lessons.

Return form to haberfieldbands@gmail.com , class teacher, school office or Mr. Collins-White ASAP. Tick the instrument your child is interested in learning -
